Necessity for Advertising Told at Club

Kiwanians Hear Publicity Manager of Edison Company

Local Merchants Urged to Study Benefits of Consistent Effort

Advertising is so valuable and so necessary to the retail merchant that there is no room for argument to the contrary, in the opinion of Richard E. Smith, who addressed the Kiwanis Club on Tuesday. The only problems to be solved are when and how to advertise.

It was "Edison Day," with R. C. Copenhaver, local agent, as program chairman. District Agent Fred Schwartz introduced the speaker, who is advertising manager for the Southern California Edison Company. Mr. Schwartz warmly commended the members of the newly chartered club, saying he believed its organization was the most important forward step in local community affairs in a long time. He believed the service club idea held great good in store for Sierra Madre.

Mr. Smith's address was thoroughly practical and brought advertising out of the realms of mystery to the basis of plain common sense. Solution of the problem of when to advertise requires the satisfactory answer to a number of questions: Are we ready? Is the store well located, well equipped for display, well stocked with the right goods, manned with salespeople who know how to give good service? Are there attractive displays in windows and about the store? Are the prices right? If all these conditions are met, the merchant is justified in advertising for trade. "Have we the courage to advertise?" is another vital question. Practically all successful concerns that advertise on a large scale devote a fixed percentage of their gross receipts to advertising. Mr. Smith recommended 4 per cent as a wise figure for an annual business of $30,000. It should be made a part of the annual budget, just as necessary as rent. Have we the courage to set aside such an advertising allowance, to be used like a trust fund, absolutely and solely for advertising? If so, we are ready to begin, and the question of method is to be solved.

Newspaper advertising is the backbone and framework of all advertising for retailers, said Mr. Smith. In proof of his belief, he said the Edison company advertises in every established newspaper in the ten counties served by the company. They would not think of trying to do business without it. There are other advertising methods, all having their place, such as novelties, calendars, direct mail, etc., but newspaper advertising is the medium best covering the home field and the most essential.

Methods of copy writing were then discussed by Mr. Smith. The headline, or display line of the advertisement is the keystone of the ad. Make it specific rather than general. Try to attract attention by directness rather than by cleverness. Make the display lines refer to your business, or the thing you are selling.

In writing copy, talk directly to the particular people who would buy the article offered.

Three mental pigeonholes should be used for classifying the article advertised. This classification should be kept in mind in planning the advertising campaign and in writing copy. All merchandise falls into one of the three: Is the article unknown and unwanted; is it half-known and half-wanted; or is it known and wanted? In the first two cases all or part of the public must be educated to know the article well enough to want it. In the last case, the buyer merely wants to be informed where he can get it. If a merchant will plan his advertising along the lines laid down, said Mr. Smith, things will begin to happen. The effect may not be large at once, but persistence will win.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver motored to Santa Barbara last week end to visit Mrs. Copenhaver's sisters who live in the Channel City. They were accompanied as far as Ventura by Bessy Glenn, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Droke.

FIREMEN USE FUND AFTER GETTING ADVISE FROM PUBLIC

After receiving advice from a representative number of citizens of Sierra Madre, members of the Volunteer Fire Department have decided to use the money left over from the Christmas fund for the furnishings in their new quarters in the city hall.

The decision was reached at the meeting of the Firemen last Friday night, when their ladies were entertained at dinner. Following dinner, the ladies cleared the tables and "did" the dishes, which may have been why they were asked (according to opinions expressed) while the men held the usual practice. Later in the evening all played cards, the first social function since the completion of the new quarters.

The furniture, including several large chairs and a couple of overstuffed davenports, as well as several tables, has already been purchased, and together with the rugs and the drapes will be paid for partially from the remains of the Christmas fund and partly from other sources.

Enrollment at School Grows Every Month

Sixty-one Pupils Placed on the Honor Roll for Perfect Attendance

Average daily attendance, upon which depends state apportionment of funds for the salaries of teachers, has been gradually mounting since the opening of the grammar school in the fall, and during the past month the attendance represented 95 per cent of the pupils enrolled.

The enrollment during December dropped off, however, due to the usual holiday shifting, and there were 292 children on the roll as compared with 300 for the month previous. School started in September with 287 children, climbed to 297 for the second month, reached the high point of 300 during the third month, and dropped to 292 last month, according to figures in the office of the principal, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger.

During the first month the average attendance was 92 per cent of the enrollment, for the second month 94 per cent and for the last month 95 per cent.

For the half year period beginning in September and closing on the 27th of January there were 62 children present every school day, with no tardiness. Those on the honor roll are:

Grade 1-A—Tashiko Aisawa, Victoria Ballesteras, LeRoy Embree. Grade 1-B—Marilyn Paschall, Dorothy Wilson, Alfredo Portillo and Francis Sexton.

Grade 2-A and 2-B—Alberto Becerra, Billy Mays, Thomas Solary, Rosa Najera, Buddy Holland, Kathleen Johnson.

Grade 3-A—Jack Paschall, Roland Cooley, John Junkin, Charles Hibbs, Maul Miller, Lillian Kennedy, Anna Kacovsky, Amalia Becerra, Tom Barragan, Stuart Deal.

Grade 3-B—Gus Barrett, Robert Elkin, Billy Johnson, Bennie Lyon, Angel Uribe, Hilda Gunness, Leota Manning, Rosemary Pickard, Kimiko Shimizu, Virginia Stimling.

Grade 6-A—Lesley Perry, John Wilson, Goldie Cutler and Mary Groth. 6-B—Herbert Grammel, Henry Greger, Jim Heasley, Randolph Twycross, Marjorie Ashmore and Jude Lacey.

Mrs. Gerald French, accompanied by Miss Ella Shepard Bush and Mrs. B. Taylor, motored to Hollywoodland Tuesday to visit the Kant's Studio.

Mrs. Fred Griebenow and daughter drove to Hollywoodland to view the Lillian Genth exhibit now on display at Kant's studio.

Workers Busy On Plans For Annual Event

Wistaria Fete Arrangements Being Perfected by Club Women

Mrs. William Lees Appoints Committees to Push Festival

Committees for the Wistaria Fete are not yet complete, but a large number of the workers have been appointed, and are already working toward the success of the annual event, to be sponsored this year by the Woman's Club.

Mrs. William Lees and Mrs. W. E. Walker who are in charge of the general committee, have named the following workers: Mrs. Fletcher White, president, in charge of activities at the club house; roads and parking, W. R. Humphries; advertising, Mrs. Milton Steinberger; housing committee, Mrs. Estelle Fennell, chairman, Mrs. Homer Glidden, Mrs. Wilfred Humphries and Miss Harriet Grant; courtesy, Mrs. E. E. Bacon; afternoon teas, Mrs. H. W. Glidden; transportation, Mrs. C. B. Klunk; cafeteria, Mrs. F. L. C. Roess; candy, Miss Virginia Jones; novelties, Mrs. W. E. Walker; treasurer, Miss Clara Sykes.

There will be a booth for the sale of marmalade, honey, ice cream and perfume, but the chairmanship of the committee in charge has not been decided.

The fete will, as usual, last for a week or more, during which time it is expected that thousands of visitors will visit the vine and take part in the festivities for which Sierra Madre is noted.

Mrs. Lees announces that the Woman's Club is planning to take reservations for private dinners, probably chicken pie, as it is too big an undertaking to prepare a large number of dinners unless they are ordered. Pictures of the vine will be sold on the grounds.

New Owner Takes Over Halpin Cafe

J. W. Lee, formerly of Los Angeles, is the new proprietor of Halpin's Cafe, operated for several years by Mr. and Mrs. George Halpin. Mr. Lee purchased the business several weeks ago, taking possession February 1. He will operate the business under the name of The Mountain Tavern.

Mr. Lee is an old hand at the cafe business and has a wide acquaintance in Los Angeles and throughout the county. He was for many years engaged in professional sports, boxing, etc. He is delighted with Sierra Madre and the contacts he has made here. He expresses particular appreciation of his dealings with Mr. and Mrs. Halpin. "I certainly like to find a square shooter," he says. "All our negotiations and agreements were oral and everything has been rosy."

Mr. and Mrs. Halpin are living at their home, 135 East Highland. They express their gratitude for the patronage given the cafe and the hope that their friends will continue under the new management.

Large Group Is Present to Hear Dr. R. Westcott

Speaking very frankly to a large audience of adults, Dr. Regina Westcott, noted lecturer of Pasadena, last night outlined the duties and responsibilities of the mother and father when she appeared in the Congregational Church under the auspices of the Mother's Club.

A large group, representing all churches in the community gathered to hear Dr. Westcott, who held her audience at close attention for an hour and a half.

Following her talk, a social hour was presided over by the club committee, headed by Mrs. T. M. McDonough, who served refreshments. During the first part of the evening Mrs. Arthur Stockman played a piano selection, and Rev. Pritchard gave a short talk.

Dry cleaners will agree that all wealth comes from the soil. — Thomas E. Pickering Service.

Cornerstone of New Church To Be Laid Feb. 12

The cornerstone of the new Congregational Church will be laid on Sunday afternoon, February 12, at 2:30 o'clock. A fitting and inspiring program is being arranged by the committee.

The construction of the church is progressing rapidly. Plasterers are at work in the educational building and the roof is being laid. The foundation walls of the church proper are being set so that all will be in readiness for the cornerstone laying.

The committee reports that there is still needed about $12,000 cash and pledges to cover the cost of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Montgomery and son Tom of Bolckow, Mo., visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Eastwood Thursday afternoon. The Montgomerys own many broad acres of rich Missouri land, and it has been their custom for many years to spend part of each winter in California. They have traveled most of the highways and by-ways in the west and consequently it was pleasing to hear them remark that in their opinion Sierra Madre is the most beautiful little city they have seen. Tom Montgomery is a member of the Missouri legislature and well known in state politics.

Legion Post Visits Boys At Sawtelle

Take Entertainment for Their Buddies in Government Hospital

Local Artists 'Perform' for Disabled eVts and Their Guests

Varied, so as to appeal to all of the disabled veterans present, and short, so as not to keep them too long from their needed sleep, was the program presented under the auspices of the local American Legion post at the hospital at Sawtelle last night. Judging from the reception of the various numbers, the buddies were well pleased with the entertainment, which had been planned following the receipt of a letter telling how greatly they enjoyed the first program presented several weeks ago by the same artists.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hawks and Dave Buchan, well known dramatists, gave a short skit woven around the complications which arise when a landlady rents a room to two men, one of whom works at night, and the other of whom works in the day time, in the hope that neither will discover the trick. The parts were taken with the usual brilliancy displayed by the actors.

Mrs. Lovetta Hicks Pratt, well known reader, held the boys entranced with her interpretation of "Betty Sees a Ball Game" and two shorter readings, "The American Girl," in Italian dialect, and the rendition of a recitation as a small child would give it.

Mrs. May Barlow, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Myrtle Hill, sang a group of two songs, the first "If I Were a Rose" and the second, "A Little Bit of Heaven," both numbers meeting with the full approval of her audience.

Joe R. Eastwood in the full regalia of a Spanish troubadour, entertained the vets with several stories and sang "The Spaniard Who Blighted My Life," accompanying himself on the guitar. Two Spanish folk songs, sung first in the native tongue, and then in English brought a hearty round of applause from the audience.

A large number of Sierra Madrans accompanied the entertainers, five car loads of people making the trip.

Commissioner of Police Talks on Hickman Defense

Special interest is being taken in the radio talks by Police Commissioner Thorpe, who has been giving a series of addresses on public protection over KFI. Commissioner Thorpe will talk over KFI next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. He has been giving the public some pertinent facts concerning the legal part of the Hickman case, and a number of Sierra Madre residents have been interested in his remarks.

Local Artist Exhibits Two Miniatures

Miss Ella Shepard Bush Has Two Miniatures in L. A. Museum

Many Fine Specimens Feature Display by Many Artists

Cataloged under the title, "My Friend Hubert," a miniature of Hubert H. Tuttle of Sierra Madre, painted by Ella Shepard Bush, is attracting a great deal of attention at the eleventh annual exhibition under the auspices of the California Society of Miniature Painters, which opened in the Los Angeles Museum, Exposition Park, Wednesday, February 1.

Miss Bush, who is vice-president of the society and chairman of the prize committee, has two miniatures on exhibition, the one already mentioned and one cataloged under the name "Corinna." The display this year is particularly lovely, according to Miss Bush, who stated that the first prize of $100 was awarded to Miss Emma Siboni for her painting, "A Modern Eve," while second prize went to Miss Gertrude L. Little on "Reverie."

The exhibition will continue until February 29, and on the closing day a $50 prize, the gift of Mrs. C. H. Baker, well known in Sierra Madre, will be awarded to the painter of the miniature selected by popular acclaim. Visitors at the museum are asked to vote on the loveliest of the paintings, and the prize will be awarded to the exhibitor receiving the greatest number of votes on one miniature.

Miss Bush has achieved nationwide fame thru her splendid work and during January exhibited two portraits with the Brooklyn Society of Miniature Painters. She has just completed a miniature of Dorro Converse, aged sixteen months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Converse of Santa Paula.

Local Man Is Injured When Car Hits Auto

Although the seat in which he was sitting was crushed and the steering wheel smashed, when his automobile was struck by a Pacific Electric car, S. Barnidge of 42 North Auburn escaped death, and is today recuperating from the effects of the accident. He is at home, and under the care of Dr. Jackson.

The collision occurred at the intersection of Colorado street and San Gabriel Boulevard, as Mr. Barnidge was driving across San Gabriel shortly after 6 o'clock last Monday evening on his way to work in Pasadena. The accident happened during that period of uncertain twilight when it is difficult to see through the dusk, and the motorman stated that he did not see the machine until he was practically on top of it.

A desperate attempt to stop the car before it crashed into the automobile was unsuccessful, but the speed had been checked so that the shock of the collision failed to turn the machine over, but sent it spinning across the street.

The driver's side of the automobile was struck and badly damaged, but aside from painful bruises to his side and shoulder, which have kept him in bed since Monday, Mr. Barnidge is uninjured.

Rush Survey of Central Avenue To Completion

Survey of Central Avenue, for which the county of Los Angeles has set aside $10,000, is being made at the present time, and the engineers have completed the eastern half, having reached the business center. The survey will be taken along Central Avenue from Santa Anita to Sierra Madre Avenues, and thence to Colorado Avenue.

The survey has as its ultimate goal the improvement and continuation of Central Avenue so that a wide boulevard will extend from Santa Anita in Arcadia to Huntington Drive, Pasadena. The extension of Central Avenue has long been sought by Sierra Madre and its completion now seems certain.

YOUTH FINED $100 AFTER JURY TRIAL IN SIERRA MADRE

Because it was his first offence before this court, Michael Fiegenbaum, 269 E. Grand View Avenue, who was convicted of reckless driving by a jury last Tuesday afternoon, had his operator's license revoked for only 30 days, when he appeared before Dean Carson Shaw, recorder of the local court, Thursday.

In addition to the revocation of the operator's license for thirty days, Fiegenbaum was fined $100. After he had sentenced the culprit, Dean Shaw told him that should he be seen driving any vehicle during the next thirty days he would be subject to imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Fiegenbaum's trial was an aftermath of the automobile collision in which he and his father, Wm. Fiegenbaum, and Kay Ishoy figured. At the trial it was determined that young Fiegenbaum, who was driving the Fiegenbaum car, failed to make the boulevard stop at the intersection of Mountain Trail and Grand View, where the accident occurred.

Death Claims A. A. Halsey At Age of 48

Friends Gather for Memorial Service at Home Sunday

Relatives and close friends of Archibald A. Halsey, who passed away Friday evening at 7:15, gathered at the home, 306 E. Alegria, last Sunday afternoon to join the widow in a service of remembrance for the loved one. Death came at the age of 48, after years of illness bravely borne by Mr. Halsey, who in his four years' residence in Sierra Madre had endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact.

At the quiet service Sunday afternoon at the home a group of relatives and friends met. Rev. A. O. Pritchard read sustaining affirmations from the Bible, Bulwer-Lytton's "There is No Death," and Mr. Halsey's chosen verses, Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," and in discourse and prayer conveyed by comforting eloquence the assurance of the life eternal.

Mr. Halsey's unusual abilities transcended bodily frailness for during the twelve years of his illness, succeeding his active business life in the interests of the American Telephone Company, of which his uncle Theodore Vail, was the first president, he showed continued interest and skill in business transactions.

The concluding service was held Monday afternoon in San Francisco at Cypress Lawn Cemetery where the body of his son, Theodore, rests. Dr. Gresham of San Francisco officiated at this service and the music was furnished by a quartet under the direction of Dr. Richards, organist, of San Jose.

Mr. Halsey is survived by his wife, Carrie D. Halsey, two brothers, A. E. Halsey of Los Angeles, and T. V. Halsey of San Francisco, and three sisters, Mrs. Fred Foster of San Jose, Mrs. Fletcher Raymond of Los Altos and Mrs. Beverly Raymond of Palo Alto.

Huntington Library and Art Gallery, San Gabriel, Calif., specifying the date and number of admissions desired, and enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope for reply. Applications will be filled in order of receipt, but not more than five cards of admission will be issued to any one applicant, and children under ten years of age will not be admitted. Admissions will be limited for the present to approximately 250 each day.

Mrs. Ralph Stewart is attending the luncheon given by the Los Angeles County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary in Los Angeles today.

Sierra Madre Pupils Given Second Bus

Extra Bus Added for Transportation of Junior High Pupils

Vexing Problem Is Remedied By School District Authorities

With the opening of the second semester at Woodrow Wilson junior high school, another bus has been added for the transportation of Sierra Madre pupils to and from school. The extra bus makes the seating capacity just about equal to the requirements. It is believed this will relieve the overcrowding which was the cause of much complaint last term.

The new schedule still requires one very early bus trip, leaving Sierra Madre about 7:00 a. m., which many parents regard as entirely too early for pupils of junior high school age. The transportation problem is receiving the serious and careful study of Supt. John A. Saxon of the high school district. He has written the News for full information concerning the grounds for criticism as seen from the Sierra Madre angle.

In further effort to get complete information, E. E. McCullough, former principal of Wilson school, visited Sierra Madre on Monday and Tuesday as the personal representative of Supt. Saxon. Mr. McCullough has been transferred to the headquarters of the board of education for special assistance to Mr. Saxon.

Arthur M. Brown, who organized the Wilson school faculty and who was prevented from assuming the principal's position during the first semester by reason of illness, is now in full charge there. Mr. Brown is fully alive to the necessity for closer supervision of pupils who are required to spend some time on the grounds before and after school by reason of the bus schedule.

Former Resident of Sierra Madre Called by Death

Miss Mary A. Green formerly of Sierra Madre passed away Sunday, January 29, in Alameda at the home of her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Powell, where she and her sister, Miss Jean Green, have been spending the winter.

Miss Green leaves two sisters and a brother to mourn her loss, Miss Jean Green, Mrs. Martha Powell and George G. Green of New Jersey.

The services were held Tuesday afternoon, January 31, at the Fowler and Lowman Chapel in Alameda. The Rev. Mr. Shires of Christ Church, Alameda, read the impressive Episcopal service. Two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me" were beautifully sung.

The body was placed in a vault at Evergreen Cemetery, Oakland. Later it will be brought to Sierra Madre and laid beside her sister, Adelaide S. Green, who passed away in Sierra Madre July 26, 1926.

A quiet, modest, unassuming woman, Miss Green leaves many who are saddened by her passing. She was an aunt of Mrs. Mildred Cook of Sierra Madre.

Miss Bush to Be Honored Guest at Long Beach Club

The Ebull Club of Long Beach is making wide announcement of the fact that Miss Ella Shepard Bush of this city will be the honored guest at an afternoon tea given by the art department of club on February 8.

Miss Bush, who is a nationally known miniature painter, will exhibit a number of small portraits and will talk informally on the art of miniature painting. Miss Bush is a member of the Art Students' League of New York, the California Art Club and the California Society of Miniature Painters.

Dr. G. W. Groth, Rev. H. B. Moore and R. R. Moreland inspected Woodrow Wilson Junior high school last Friday afternoon, in company with twenty-one of the students.

Society and Personal

Auxiliary Plans Membership Tea—

As a forerunner to a membership drive to enlarge the American Legion Auxiliary of Sierra Madre, the organization is planning an afternoon tea, to be held in the Park House on Monday, February 13. Mrs. Harold Roberts has been appointed chairman in charge of the arrangements by the president, Mrs. Ralph Stewart.

Guests at the affair will be new and prospective members, and a splendid program is being arranged. All women eligible to membership in the Auxiliary are urged to call Mrs. James Farnham, who will issue invitations.

According to the Unit Handbook eligibility is based on the following rules: Membership in the Auxiliary shall be limited to mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of members of the American Legion, and to the mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of men and women who were in the military or naval service of the United States between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918, and died in line of duty or after honorable discharge; and to those women who of their own right are eligible to membership in the American Legion.

A new ruling is that a widow of a ex-service man who died in action or since the world war, is eligible for the American Legion Auxiliary even though she has married again a man who is not a Legionnaire.

Book Section Meets In Morning Session—

The last theatrical tour by John Drew, America's foremost actor, before his death, was related to the members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Wednesday, Jan. 25th when Mrs. Jack Valley, curator of the section, read Peggy Wood's little book entitled, "A Splendid Gypsy."

Three autobiographies, "Up the Years from Bloomsbury," by George Arliss; "My Life," by Isadora Duncan, and "Pages from My Life," by Chaliapin, were recommended to the members of the section, to be read in a group. In describing them, Mrs. Valley said the first was mellow, the second tragic and the third rousing.

"Lazarus Laughed," a new drama by Eugene O'Neill, was classified by Mrs. Valley as the finest American drama ever written. The reader stated that the religious play was a distinct departure from the usual thing done by O'Neill. Ernest Boyd's "Literary Blasphemies" contains a certain biting criticism of the works of Shakespeare, Milton and Dickens, while the life and inner history of the former play writer has been set down by Madame de Chambrun in her book, "Shakespeare, Actor-Poet."

Taking Ernest Barker's discussion of modern American literature, drama and art, "National Character," as a basis, Mrs. Valley reviewed three of the new novels, "Uncertain Treasure," by Helen Woodbury, "Due Reckoning," by Stephen McKenna and "Rebellion" by Mateel Howe Farnham. The first, a love story, she dismissed as practically negligible except for the sparkle of the heroine. The second she described as being of a heavier type, revolving about a solid Englishman who built his success over the ruin of three women but without the reckoning which the title had promised. The third she spoke of in glowing terms, and recommended it to her hearers. "Rebellion" recently was awarded the $10,000 Dodd-Mead prize, and is woven around the blindness and conceit of the average father of the average American family.

Adam and Eve, John Erskine's newest satire, was also highly recommended, and deals with the first love affair and the first marriage, which the author contends were very different propositions.

Friends Wish Travelers Bon Voyage—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Isaacs are on their way to Honolulu, where they will spend two or three weeks. They sailed on the City of Los Angeles last Saturday from Wilmington, where they were wished "bon voyage" by a large number of friends, who presented Mrs. Isaacs with a bouquet of yellow rose buds. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Miller, Mrs. Ada Oswald, Miss Dolores Oswald, Mrs. May and Mrs. Ammerman.

Priscilla Club to Meet Thursday—

Mrs. Gilbert Bovard and Mrs. Stella Dennison will be co-hostesses to the members of the Modern Priscilla Club when they entertain at the home of the former, 354 North Canon Avenue, Thursday afternoon, February 9.

Current Affairs Section Meeting—

Wednesday, February 22, is the date of the next Current Events Section meeting, according to announcement by the leader, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, who will secure either Father Lucey of the state board of welfare work or some other member of the board for the discussion. The subject will be "California Agencies and Institutions for Delinquents—Juveniles and Adults."

Miss Virginia Jones will also have time on the program for a continuation of her discussion on national architecture. Miss Jones is to conduct a brief period at each session of the section. The meeting will be at 12:30, between the literature section meeting and the afternoon program.

Informal Dinner Party Enjoyable Affair—

Charmingly informal was the dinner party presided over by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawless at their home Thursday evening. Covers were laid at the perfectly appointed dinner table for Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlett, Mrs. Frank J. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphries, Mrs. F. K. ### Bridge Luncheon Is Smart Affair—

One of the smartest of the pre-Lenten affairs is the bridge luncheon which is being given today at the Vista del Arroyo Hotel in Pasadena by Mmes. Robert Corlett, E. D. Burbank, E. E. Bacon and F. H. Hartman. More than fifty guests from Sierra Madre and vicinity have been bidden to the party, which is in keeping with the early springtime. Lovely baskets of spring flowers and pastel appointments are being used on the luncheon tables in the large ball room, where the affair is being held.

Mrs. Bacon to Entertain Woman's Society—

Members of the Woman's Society of the Congregational Church will be guests at the home of Mrs. E. E. Bacon next Tuesday afternoon, February 7, when Mrs. Bacon and the executive board members of the society will be the hostesses.

The afternoon will be entirely social, with the exception of the announcement of the outcome of the membership contest. A large number of new members have been secured by the two teams, headed by Mrs. Jerome Rice and Mrs. Frank Merrill. The winners will be "treated" by the losers.

Farewell Luncheon for Mrs. Isaacs—

Mrs. Henry Isaacs, who with Mr. Isaacs sailed last Saturday on the City of Los Angeles for Hawaii, was the guest of honor recently at a bridge luncheon, presided over by Mrs. J. S. Weber, 352 East Alegria. The affair was given at the Weber home Tuesday, January 24, and Mrs. Isaacs was presented with a fine leather correspondence case by the hostess. The luncheon table was dainty with its appointments in the pastel shades, the centerpiece being a low bowl of orchid and pink sweetpeas. Prizes for the afternoon's bridge game went to Mrs. T. J. Burns and Mrs. F. P. Miller.

Guests for the occasion were Mrs. Isaacs, Mrs. May of New York, Mrs. Ammerman of Iron River, Mich., Mrs. T. J. Burns, Jr., Mrs. Carl Gray, Mrs. F. P. Miller, Miss Evelyn Miller, Mrs. Ada Oswald and Mrs. E. W. Burns.

Frank Hayes, 334 North Lima, has returned home from St. Vincent's Hospital, Los Angeles, following a siege with pleurisy and pneumonia. Previous to his illness he suffered a slight stroke.

His son and daughter, George Hayes and Miss Frances Hayes, of Chicago, were called here because of his illness. The son has returned to Chicago, but Miss Frances will remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes came from Chicago a year ago, and have made many friends in Sierra Madre.

Miss Lawler of San Francisco is spending several days visiting in Sierra Madre with her friend, Miss Frances Hayes, of 334 North Lima Street.

Spring Coming?

We saw a man out SPADING in his GARDEN this morning AND we thought we MIGHT make a hit with HIM by going over and OFFERING to help, but ON second thought we WERE afraid that the OFFER might not be TURNED down so we DECIDED not to risk it. BUT it sure did REMIND us that spring MUST be on it's way AND that now would BE a good time to START in with that "SPRING TONIC" and WE might suggest THAT Puretest COD Liver Oil would BE a real good one TO take because it HAS the large VITAMIN content SO essential to GOOD health.

Progressive Dinner Interesting—

Starting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tarr, 274 West Montecito Avenue, thirty members of the League of Youth of the Congregational Church participated in a progressive dinner last Friday evening. The group gathered at the Tarr home proceeded to the home of Mrs. Martha Lichnog, where the Japanese motif was carried out. The guests received napkins and a "fortune" at the Lichnog home.

At the E. E. Bacon home the first course of the dinner, a fruit cocktail, was served under the French motif. Mrs. A. O. Pritchard had prepared the next course, serving spaghetti, olives, salted peanuts, grape juice and rye bread under the flag of Italy.

Beef loaf, German style, was served at the Tarr home, while fruits of all kinds were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Glidden. Mrs. Glidden had chosen to represent the South Sea Islands and the table was centered with a coconut tree in which was perched a monkey. Around the base of the tree were tropical fruits of all kinds.

The salad course was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Preston Schwartz, who served the Holland dish of cottage cheese over pineapple. The party closed at the home of Mrs. A. J. Rust where the American delicacies, ice cream and cake, were served. Dinner was followed by a number of games.

Musical a Delightful Event—

A group of devotees to the muse, Calliope, gathered in the Parish house of the Church of the Ascension Saturday evening, when they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Perry at a musicale and buffet supper. Musical selections were given by Mrs. Randolph Wood, soprano; Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Hall Perry, and a trio composed of Oscar Rasbach, Herbert Ingraham and Randolph Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry were assisted by Mrs. William Carson Shaw in receiving the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rasbach, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Dean and Mrs. William Carson Shaw, Miss Edna Green, Hans Schunk, Col. and Mrs. Herman Hall, Miss Jean Woodward, the Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Moore, Herbert Ingraham, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stover.

Entertained Friends at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Moreland entertained a group of friends at their home last Sunday night, those in the party being Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Aspinwald, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Aspinwald and Hartley Barger of Los Angeles, Mrs. Wills, Mr. and Mrs. Vaupel and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olsen of Sierra Madre.

American Architecture Being Developed—

That the Mayan influence is becoming more and more strongly felt in American architecture, and that it may be said to be the only true national style, was the statement made by Miss Virginia Jones when she addressed the members of the Current Events section of the Woman's Club Wednesday, January 25, immediately following luncheon.

Miss Jones, who has made a thorough study of the situation, reported that the Indian influence with its towering blocks and its simple design was being more and more used in public buildings of the nation, and cited the new city hall in Los Angeles, the library, and several other new buildings as examples.

The Aztec hotel in Monrovia was the first purely Mayan building in the United States, and was designed by an architect whose fame has since spread thru the nation.

Miss Jones described the architecture as being plain in design, a series of blocks slightly tapered, and similar to the early Egyptian style.

Entertain Aviators at Dinner Party—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill of Santa Anita Court entertained recently in honor of their son, Wayne, and a group of his aviator friends. The guests are all taking courses in flying at Ross Field in Arcadia, and the dinner was to celebrate the recent triumph of young Merrill and Chas. Askew when they made their first solo flights as pilots to San Diego.

The table was charming with its centerpiece of red poinsettias and other red favors, and places were marked for James Robson of Pasadena, Ferris Smith, Chas. Askew, Eddie Rowand and Wayne Merrill.

Eteri Club Hears Fine Address—

A representative from the Mary Martha home for working girls, in Los Angeles, Miss Churchill, addressed the members of the Eteri Club and a number of guests at the meeting of the club Thursday night in Bethany Hall. Dinner at 6:30 preceded the speaking, and was attended by members only, while the meeting later was open to the public, and was well attended. The newly elected officers presided. They are: President, Dorothy Moote; vice president, Lucille Ladd; secretary, Rose Mary Miller, and chairman of the dinners, Dorothea Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smith returned Sunday from a week's visit to San Francisco, where they attended the furniture market in session last week.

Garden Section Has First Meet—

No more appropriate setting could have been selected for the first meeting of the Garden Section of the Woman's Club than the C. F. Baker home in Pasadena, was the opinion of the thirty ladies who attended the affair yesterday. The meeting was held in the lovely gardens of the estate, which afforded a splendid illustration of the beauty of a natural California estate.

A picnic luncheon, furnished by the various members, with coffee served by the hostess, was eaten under the oak trees, following which the estate was inspected. Mrs. A. R. Hinton has accepted the leadership of the group.

Mrs. Baker had secured Mr. Coolidge, of the Coolidge Rare Plant Gardens in Pasadena, to address the club, and Mr. Coolidge spoke on planting to insure winter flowers. Mr. Coolidge is well versed in flowers. Mr. Coolidge has developed many original specimens, and at present is working on a red blossoming peach which blooms earlier than any other tree of its kind. He is setting out a large plot to the tree, and hopes to establish it as a foremost ornamental tree.

Miss Thomasella Graham, also authority on gardens, addressed those present on the subject of winter gardening.

St. Catherine's Has Evening Meeting—

Mrs. Barney Rider entertained the members of St. Catherine's Guild at her home last Tuesday evening, when twelve women were present. During the evening tea towels for a children's home were hemmed, and plans were laid for a one-act play which will be presented by the Guild. The play will be selected later, to be given after Lent. At the close of the evening Mrs. Rider served a delicious supper.

The next meeting of the society will be at the home of Mrs. Victor Hill, when she and Miss Jean Woodward will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Adams have moved from the house at 227 North Wilson avenue to their home on North Hermosa. The move was made Tuesday.

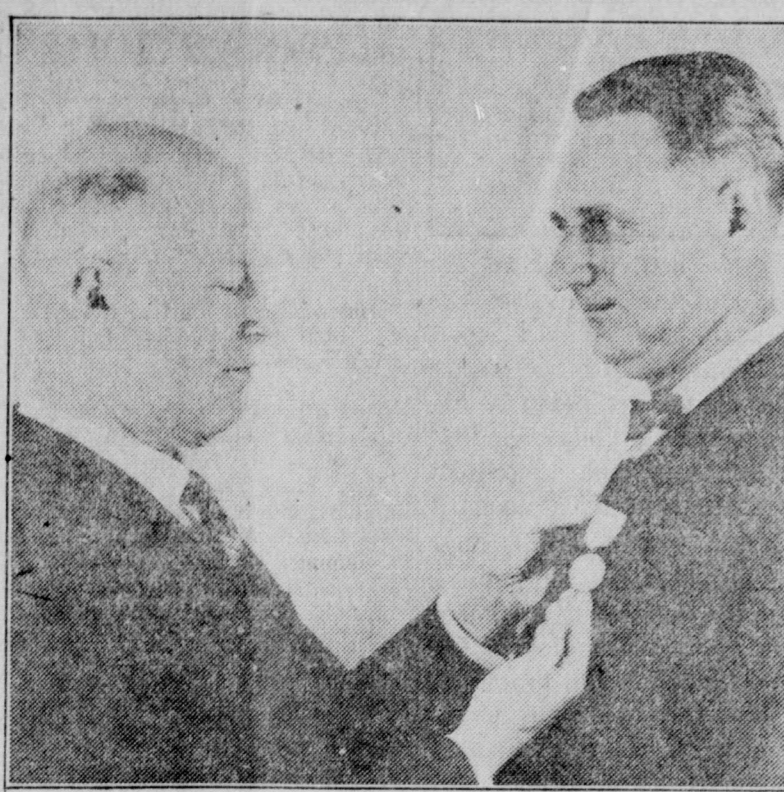

Miss Susan Reed, cousin of Mrs. W. R. Humphries and Mrs. Miller, is a house guest at the Humphries home, having arrived just recently from Bath, Maine.

Mrs. George Humphries, mother of W. R. Humphries, is a patient at the California Hospital in Los Angeles, where she will undergo a major operation Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Humphries went to Los Angeles last night to be near her.

Mrs. Laura Cline and Mrs. Lindolf drove to Sawtelle last week to take candy, fruit and smokes to the disabled veterans in Ward 9, the special ward of the Woman's Club. They also visited Ward 11, where the blind boys are stationed, and received a vote of thanks on behalf of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. B. Moote are planning to spend the week end in Imperial Valley. They will make the trip by motor.

Among the new advertisements in the News is the professional card of C. P. Kacovsky, contractor, painter and paper hanger. Mr. Kacovsky has recently completed a home on North Wilson, doing all the work himself except the electric wiring.

Insull Medal Goes To Monrovia Man

An enthusiastic meeting of his fellow employees and interested townspeople at Monrovia Friday evening, Edgar P. Fees, gang foreman of the Southern California Edison Company, was honored by having awarded to him the Insull medal for saving the life of a fellow employee, Thomas M. Elder, after the latter had come in contact with a live wire. Elder was on a new pole on North Canyon boulevard when he accidentally brushed against the 4000-volt circuit. He was immediately frozen to the wire and could not get clear. A lineman on an adjoining pole shook the wires and Elder dropped on to his safety belt, apparently dead. He was lowered to the ground immediately and Mr. Fees, in charge of the work, began artificial respiration by the prone pressure method. Following fifteen minutes of this work, Elder again began to breathe.

In presenting the medal, Fred C. Hamilton assistant manager of operations, congratulated Fees not alone on the fact that he had sufficient knowledge of the prone pressure method to put it into practice, but that he had the presence of mind necessary to start the work immediately.

New York Life Insurance Co. Has Notably Fine Year

The New York Life Insurance Company has announced that its total of new business paid for in 1927, exclusive of dividend and all other additions, was $927,000,000. This is the largest record of new business secured in any year in the company's history of eighty-three years, and is $27,000,000 in excess of the total new business in 1926. Gordon Brooks, local agent, is naturally proud of the showing. The total amount of insurance in force on December 31 was $6,285,800,000.

The 1927 payments to policyholders and beneficiaries aggregated $139,000,000. Of this sum $90,500,000 was paid to living policyholders in maturing policies and other cash benefits, including $53,000,000 in dividends, while the payments to beneficiaries under the contracts of policyholders who died amounted to $48,500,000.

During the year loans aggregating $47,000,000 were made direct to policyholders on the sole security of their policies at the rate of interest stated on the policy contracts.

'Undertow' at the Hollywood Play House, Pleases

One of the picturesque characters of the American theater is Zelda Sears, whose present pastime is playing one of the leading roles in her own drama, "Undertow," at the Hollywood Playhouse. Not only is Miss Sears a "trouper," having been a well known character woman in numerous Broadway successes, but she is also a writer of the first rank.

Eight years ago after a successful career on the stage, Miss Sears retired to write. Among the hits which resulted are "Maytime," "The Magic Ring," "The Clinging Vine," "Undertow," the present production, and two plays neither produced nor named yet, to be presented at the Hollywood Play House in the future. A dozen of her stories were filmed during a year and half which she spent with Cecil B. DeMille as scenarist. She is a leading short story contributor to several of the most popular magazines.

The original company and the complete original production of "Undertow" are being presented during the Hollywood Play House engagement.

No, No, Nannette To Feature Shrine Auditorium Opera

The most important event of the entire Shrine light opera season is scheduled to take place at Shrine Civic Auditorium Monday night, February 6, when "No, No, Nannette" is staged under the direction of Frank M. Rainger with a distinguished cast. No musical play of recent date has evoked the widespread interest aroused by this brilliant musical version of the play "My Lady Friends" by Otto Harbach and Frank Mandel. The musical score of "No, No, Nannette" was written by Vincent Youmans and the lyrics are the work of Irving Caesar and Otto Harbach.

The production will exceed in every respect any staging of "No, No, Nannette" that has been offered in the past, and no expense has been spared in the matter of lining up an unexcelled company of principals and providing elaborate costumes and settings.

This week the ever-popular musical extravaganza "hit" of another day, "The Prince of Pilsen," is being wonderfully produced in the Shrine Auditorium. With a splendid cast and gorgeous costumes and settings this famous old light opera is winning new popularity for Light Opera Season in Los Angeles.

BUYING PROTEINS

Bargain proteins are false economy in feeding children. A healthy body is grown only out of adequate growing foods, and not out of just a good variety. There are many protein foods on the market, but only a few that grow a strong body when fed in sufficient amounts. The proteins of milk, eggs, lean meat and cheese are the chief complete protein foods to buy for the child and to assist in keeping the adults of the family up to standard health. Dried beans, peas, nuts, cereals and vegetables are sources of proteins but few of them carry the complete protein so essential to the growing child. They are however good supplementary proteins which add helpful parts to the meat, milk and egg protein.

A healthy adult can manage on the less complete protein foods, but children MUST have daily the best building foods. One quart of milk per day safeguards a child's protein needs, provided the diet is well rounded out in other foods. Milk, eggs and meat must be given to grow the body and not be used extravagantly for fuel. A strong muscular child or adult is grown at the expense of protein food, but the muscles work most economically on carbohydrates and fats. Only ten to fifteen per cent of a child's daily calories need come from protein. Buy wisely the best building foods for children. Prevention of an undernourished body is more economical than repair. —Christmas Seal Service.

BUYING OUR CEREALS

No one food material is such a real bargain in supplying the family energy food economically as are the grain products. About one-fourth cup of a dry meal gives a full hundred calories and does not even cost a full cent.

Whole-grain products give more food value for the money than the refined products. If the grain and the outer coats of the grain are left in the flour and breakfast food, valuable minerals and vitamins are also left in. When the food money is plentiful these can be well supplied by the more generous use of milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables and a smaller quantity of grains. A limited food budget, however, requires a wise and generous buying of the grain foods.

Oatmeal contains a generous share of both the outer layers of the grain and of the germ; wheat, products, such as graham flour, shredded wheat, puffed and rolled wheat are almost entirely whole grain. The so-called entire wheat flour puzzles the purchasers because it misses being entirely "entire" as some of the bran is left out. Consequently the best phosphorus and iron bargains are the whole grain wheat and oats.

No child fed on a very low cost diet can get its necessary amount of iron without a generous and regular feeding of whole grain foods. However a child cannot depend on these for calcium for bones and teeth, since the grains are very low in this very necessary mineral. Add the quart of milk daily to the breads and the breakfast cereals and calcium will be supplied abundantly.

The proteins of cereals may also be had cheaply, but they, by themselves could not make the child grow. The milk balances the diet and the very best protein foods are had to work with the aid of the cereal proteins.

Inexpensive and well balanced diets can always be had by a generous use of the whole grain products and the full quota of milk for all the family.—Christmas Seal Service.

More Tears and Bigger Ones

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

(Fire Flames and several columns of other good news were crowded out of the News last week. Fire Flames, a trifle late, but nonetheless good, is herewith published.)

Not a great deal more can be said about the appearance of the new city hall and how beautifully it was decorated for last Friday's opening night. I think the Sierra Madre Press covered that part sufficiently. But not enough has been said about how very grateful the fireboys feel for the consideration tendered them by the city fathers and the people of the city.

Our new quarters (not "two-bits") are what we term "the cat's." First we have the engine house with its newly-painted truck equipped with brand new pneumatic tires and other features that were mentioned before in the "kolm."

Did you notice the bright new helmets adorning the Lee side of the old ship as you went by on your way to the Fireboys' Fire-side? Well, they are some helmets badly needed for cranial protection. Some of us don't possess head enough to keep away from falling timber and the like and these helmets will protect some very hard heads. When I asked "Louie" if he had seen the new helmets, he answered, "De Hell mit vat?" (I know this is an old one; you can blame Louie.)

This fellow Louie seems to be very popular beyond the Firemen's circles. Being one of the members present last Friday evening, I was requested on numerous occasions as to the whereabouts of Louie, and several times Mr. Karger was asked for. (Mr. Karger, by the way, is Louie.) As is customary with this famous person, he was found seated in the midst of four beautiful townswomen on a davenport of four-person capacity. If you saw this, you saw Louie. Other members were of notable presence, but not quite so conspicuous. Hibbs had to behave, with his wife at hand, and ditto for the remainder of 'em that have wives. Chief Richards was carefully taken care of by his nuptial sidekick. Keegan's better nine-tenths was there to demonstrate their prevailing connubial felicity. Assistant Chief George Norris was in the same boat and complained a great deal about the room being equipped with a telephone. This feature particularly pleases his spouse, who can now cheer his Friday nights out by calling him to the phone.

All in all, last Friday's opening was a gala event and speaking for the Fire Department, we are very much pleased. Colonel Hall gave a very nice talk and acquainted everyone with statistics and figures relating to the cost of the building, and future needs. Judge Shaw, representing the people, spoke on taxes and the like in a very delightful manner, including in his talk a noticeable mention of the Fire Department. Members of the council were present and made their presence known in appropriate manner.

The new chute from "quarters" to engine room was a temptation to a great many visitors, being tried by many dignified personages, including well dressed ladies, which only proves my belief that people never grow up. They only try to make believe. I enjoyed a slide myself, regardless of the awkward manner in which I landed. It will require some practice to perfect a respectable landing.

A number of the boys enjoyed the hospitality of the Arcadia Fire and Police Departments last Saturday evening. A dance and general party was given and if the law had permitted, I think it would rival a six-day bike race. Twelve o'clock came much too soon. All those present were sorry to hear that Sunday morning came at twelve. As is usual, Sierra Madre people let 'em know they were present. A spot prize was won by Mrs. Hibbs, who, by the way was dancing with Frank Lovell at the time. Frank has a habit of dancing in the right spot. How he ever got over there without his wife will always remain a mystery. She was very much missed by many, including the writer of this "kolm." Frank Hilbrandt acted as tho his evening would be ruined when he learned that Mrs. Lovell was not present, but it was noticed that he hung on until the last dance. Mrs. Hibbs prize consisted of a box of groceries, so Lee felt that his Sunday dinner was secure. Mr. Hibbs hopped around all evening when he wasn't acting as judge of a prize waltz. With Lee as one of the judges, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heasley were chosen as participants in the final elimination, but sorry to say lost the final decision, due to no other cause than that Jim's long legs were wobbling from too continuous use. He staggered around to the end, only to learn that an elderly couple had out-waltzed them by four miles. Vern Udell danced once dance and was tired out for the rest of the evening and had to retire early from the effects. Mrs. Udell helped him to the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were present and displayed enjoyment in the terpsichorean art. Harry Peterson, our engineer, was kept busy moving over to give room to his girl friend's latest admirers. She danced every dance, each time with a different sheik, and Pete was only in on one of these. No wonder he looked envious. In this lone dance he tried his one spot stunt and was cheated out long before the dance expired. We'll have to do something about this.

Dr. Elythe M. Dutcher, Mrs. M. R. MacDowell and Mrs. A. L. Angel attended a luncheon and theatre party in Hollywood last Thursday, as the guests of Mrs. George Austin of Buffalo, N. Y., who is spending the winter in California.

Sierra Madreans To See Pictures of Native State

John O'Shea who is personally known by many Sierra Madre people, is placing a number of his paintings on exhibition in the Grace Nicholson Galleries, 46 N. Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, during the month of February, from 10 to 5 each week day.

The paintings are California and Arizona scenes, and depict the beauty of the country truly. Mrs. Edith N. Hawhurst is in charge of the exhibit.

Mr. O'Shea, whose permanent home and studio is one of the show places of Carmel Highlands, is showing in the southwest for the first time a splendid collection of twenty-nine canvases, versatile and contrasted in subject and composition, but alike in their vigorous handling of color and technique. According to those who have seen the paintings, the work starts, commands and impresses with the dramatic intensity of the modern master. Mr. O'Shea is a prominent exhibitor in New York.

California Oranges High In Favor On Continent

"During my three months trip to the United Kingdom and continental Europe I have examined and eaten oranges from Florida, Spain, South Africa, South America, Cuba and the Republic of Panama and I have never before been so completely sold on the quality and value of the California product," said Dana King, orange sales manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, who recently returned from this extensive business trip. "For its clean, bright appearance, eating quality and standardization our fruit is recognized everywhere in the world as the standard of excellence."

Our cousins abroad are rapidly gaining the same appreciation of the importance of fruit in the diet as has been developed in America, and a great deal is being accomplished by the "Eat More Fruit" campaigns in progress in Great Britain, Germany and other countries, according to the Exchange sales manager.

Rosary Services Held for Former Chicago Resident

Special Rosary services will be held this evening at 7:30 for Miss Helen Rose Phelan, who passed away at her home, 257 North Baldwin Avenue, Thursday morning at 8 o'clock. Miss Phelan, who lost her mother just a year ago, was 28 years of age. She came to Sierra Madre eight years ago for her health and was believed to be getting along nicely, so that her death comes as a shock to her relatives and many friends.

Rosary services were held last night in the Moreland Chapel and will be held again this evening, after which the body will be taken to Chicago for funeral services and interment.

One sister, Miss Clare Phelan, was with Miss Phelan during her last illness, and also surviving are her father, J. L. Phelan, two brothers, Tom and Jack; a sister, Mrs. J. I. Drain, all of Chicago, and a sister, Sister Meriam Therese, of Evansville, Ind.

News Stand Will Be Run by G. A. Clarke in Future

G. A. Clarke, a recent arrival from Dickinson, N. D., has purchased Pettitt's News Stand from A. E. Pettitt and has taken possession. Mr. Pettitt has been feeling the need of a long rest after giving close attention to the business almost night and day for many years. Consequently when Mr. Clarke and his family came to Sierra Madre to spend the winter and began to cast about for a business opening so they could locate here, he and Mr. Pettitt soon came to terms. The Clarks are residing at the northwest corner of Adams and Laurel and add another family to the large colony of former Dickinson folk in Sierra Madre.

Mr. Pettitt ranks among the old timers here. He first came to Sierra Madre about twenty-five years ago, on a visit. He became so enamored of the place that he bought a lot with the fixed determination to make his home here. Returning to his home in Marshalltown, Iowa, for a short time, he arranged as soon as he was able to move to Sierra Madre. He started in his present business in one small room, and added repeatedly to his stock so that the store now occupies the space formerly used by three small rooms. Mr. Pettitt says he simply can't think of any place but Sierra Madre as home and will remain here. After a good rest, with some motor trips for diversion, he will begin to think about some other occupation.

What's Doing At Theatres In Pasadena

THE COLORADO

At last the sequel to "Beau Geste" is coming to the Colorado. It is the screen adaptation of Wren's famous novel, "Beau Sabuer" and the feature role, that of Beau Sabuer, is played by the fast rising Paramount star, Gary Cooper. The story is of a French officer who vows never to look at another woman. Then he meets an American girl. It is a story of the Foreign Legion and the Sahara desert, a thrilling tale of desert Touaregs, and cunning desert tribesmen. The cast is headed by Cooper as Henri de Beaujolais, assisted by Noah Beery, William Powell, Evelyn Brent, Roscoe Karns and Mitchell Lewis.

THE STRAND

"Love in a cottage" is an old theme in both written and pictured romance, but Mary Pickford has a new one that might be called "Love in a packing box." In "My Best Girl," the noted star's latest film now showing at the Strand Theatre, one of the romantic sequences centers around a huge packing case in the basement of a five-and-ten store.

Comedy, Felix the Cat and Paramount News are also included in the bill.

THE RAYMOND

Sally O'Neil in "The Love Lorn," Borrah Minevitch and his eighteen musical rascals and Lynn Cowan and his "Jazz Jesters" make up the program at the Raymond for the week starting today. "The Lovelorn" is a trust life story taken from Beatrice Fairfax's famous newspaper column, "Advice to the Lovelorn." Confidences, frivolous and tragic, joys and sorrows, experiences that a girl shudders at and thrills to tell, are the material that has provided the author with her thrilling romantic story.

Borrah Minevitch and his Musical Rascals come to Pasadena direct from Grauman's Chinese theatre. They have a real novel presentation, with plenty of fun, pep and harmony. Today marks the opening of the second week for Lynn Cowan and his "Jazz Jesters." Lynn is a marvellous singer and his songs are delighting everyone. For the children's matinee Saturday there is a special feature, Johnny Hines in "The Brown Derby," a chapter of a thrilling serial, and "Our Gang" comedy and the regular program.

THE FLORENCE

Dorothy Mackaill, co-featured with Jack Muhlall in First National's "Man Crazy" now at the Florence, reversed that old popular song "Put Me Among the Girls" and has been singing "Put Me Among the Men" at the First National studios. Miss Mackaill was playing in scenes with dozens of the handsomest men in pictures for this story of New England and it is from this fact that the picture gets its name.

Mr. Stimson is a competent electrician, having had twenty years' experience in the electrical field. In 1921 he was chief electrician on the U. S. submarine S-4, the ill-fated vessel which was sunk last December, with the loss of all on board.

Electric Iron Is Among Prizes for Firemen's Party

An electric iron, a card table, a fountain pen and a serving tray will be among the ten fine prizes for the bridge and 500 games at St. Rita's Auditorium this evening, when the Firemen are giving a benefit card party. The prizes will be real drawing cards, the Firemen believe, and have been donated by various merchants of the city who wish to help the boys raise money to apply on their new furniture.

The party starts at 8 o'clock, and besides prizes for 500 and bridge, there will be a door prize. While the Altar Society of the church is co-operating with the Firemen for the evening, the latter will furnish the refreshments, which will be served shortly before midnight.

Woman's Society To Present "Peg O' My Heart" Soon

"Peg O' My Heart," a play which has proven its popularity, will be presented by a local cast under the auspices of the Woman's Society of the Congregational Church, Thursday and Friday evenings, February 23 and 24. Mrs. Milton Steinberger is directing the production, which will be given in the Woman's Club house. Rehearsals have been under way for some time, and according to those who have witnessed them, the play will be one of the finest ever presented on a Sierra Madre stage.
